About curiosity

Honestly, why do we always have to choose a dish in the restaurant?

Why is it that we often find something else we would have wanted and maybe even preferred? And why do we like to try other dishes so much? Do we dare our curiosity, if then a large portion arrives?

Everything is different in our "ProbierMahl":

Is your hunger small or big? Are you in a hurry or are you relaxing with friends over a long dinner? Maybe you also want to try dishes - even dishes that you have never ordered before?

Pure enjoyment! As you like.
